Jim will present on the topic of, "Assessment Literacy Essentials" this presentation comes from Jim's new ASCD publication, Assessment Literacy for Educators in a Hurry. Jim is a prolific author committed to equipping educators with the fastest route to acquiring the measurement moxie necessary to understand and advocate for better assessment practices and build a case for stopping ineffective and harmful ones.

"With characteristic humor and aplomb, assessment expert W. James Popham strips away the psychometrician-speak and condenses the complexities of educational testing to six practical and action-oriented understandings about: validity, reliability, fairness, score reporting, formative assessment, and affective assessment. " -- ASCD

Assessment Learning Network, 2018-19 Event #3

Friday, April 12, 2019 - Learner Agency and Formative Assessment

Event #3: REGISTER HERE

9:30 am - 3:00 pm

University Club, Lansing, MI [\[MAP\]](#)

Jill Willis, Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Education, School of Teacher Education and Leadership, Queensland University of Technology, Queensland, Australia will present on the topic of, "Preparing Teachers to Design Classroom Assessment for Learner Agency." Jill will provide an international perspective on formative assessment as used by teachers and students daily during instruction and learning. Unlike here in the U.S. where the routine use of formative assessment practice is limited, teachers in other countries such as Australia, New Zealand, and Great Britain learn to use such practices as part of their pre-service preparation and are much more likely to use them routinely in their classrooms. How might Michigan learn from these countries?
