MAC Highlights
Selected achievements 2018-19

01 MAIN ACTIVITIES

Here is what we do

- Leadership for effective policies and high-quality assessment practice
- Resources to support best practice
- Professional learning opportunities
- Assessment and action research

02 KEY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Here is a sample of what we’ve achieved

- Hosted “MAC at 10” learning & celebration event
- Designed and revealed a new, user-friendly website
- Launched the Michigan Collaborative Scoring System (MI-CSS) powered by Oscar Classroom
- Introduced a semi-monthly MAC e-newsletter

03 POINTS OF PRIDE

MAC TEAM
- Our people make the difference
- BETTER TOOLS
- To serve our members efficiently, effectively
- FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY
- To ensure sustainability
- PARTNERS AND SUPPORTERS
- To ensure success and build capacity
- MAC COMMUNITY
- Engaging our members and friends

- Participated in national and state committees/work groups
- Worked in new ways with other ed associations
- Launched new partnerships with WMU and EduPaths

04 KEY EVENTS TIMELINE 2018-19

- JAN
  - ALN Event 1
    - W. James Popham, Ph.D.
    - Assessment Literacy for Educators in a Hurry

- FEB
  - MAC at 10
    - Celebrated the MAC’s 10th anniversary with learning events and celebrations on the campus of MSU
  - MSTC
    - MAC contributed planning, clinic sessions, exhibits, and a “non-reception” to the 2019 Michigan School Testing Conference

- MAR
  - FAME TOUR
    - FAME Leads accompanied Dr. Margaret Heritage on a multi-state Learning Tour

- APR
  - ALN Event 3
    - Jill Willis, Ph.D.
    - Preparing Teachers to Design Classroom Assessment for Learner Agency

- MAY
  - New! Assessment Literacy Summer Institute: Improving Practice and Systems

- JUNE
  - NCSA
    - MAC will present three sessions at the National Conference on Student Assessment in Orlando, Florida, June 24-26.

- JUL
  - ALN Event 4
    - Margaret Heritage, Ph.D., and Tanya Wright, Ph.D.
    - Assessment that Supports Literacy

- AUG
  - ALN Event 5
    - LeeAnn Kozak-Harlow, Ph.D.
    - Closing the Gap Between Standards and Assessments: Actionable Insights for school leaders

- SEPT
  - ALN Event 6
    - Stedman Thomas, Ph.D.
    - The Four Pillars of Mathematics Assessment

- OCT
  - MAC at 10
    - Celebrated the MAC’s 10th anniversary with learning events and celebrations on the campus of MSU

- NOV
  - ALN Event 2
    - Stuart Kahl, Ph.D.
    - Performance Assessment: The Heart of a 21st Century Education

- DEC
  - ALN Event 7
    - LeeAnn Kozak-Harlow, Ph.D.
    - Closing the Gap Between Standards and Assessments: Actionable Insights for school leaders

05 PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

- FAME
  - 8,400 Coaches trained as part of the MAC Community

- MAELA
  - 4,400 Coaches trained as part of the MAC Community

- MI-Learns
  - Assessment Online Learning Modules (#9 coming summer 2019!)

THANK YOU for being part of the MAC Community!

The MAC provides leadership and services to advance quality, balanced assessment practices and systems.

Learn More
www.michiganassessmentconsortium.org